Dear Dr. del Río-Hortega:

I am much interested in your proposition and am sure it can be arranged. To that end I should like some further information.

I should like to know whether Dr. Collado would be interested in spending some of his time in actual clinical work on the wards and as operative assistant. If so, a position can be arranged for him on the hospital staff.

This year, of course, is almost at a close and both Dr. Cushing and I shall be in Europe next summer. I hope to come to Madrid, and if it is possible I shall let you know later.

There are in this country, as you doubtless know, lectures given at various institutions for which the funds are supplied by endowment. One of these could most probably be arranged for you. I should like to know what time of the year would be most convenient for you.

If you will kindly answer these few questions, I will let you know as soon as possible just what conditions we will be able to arrange.

Yours very sincerely,

Percival Bailey
