Dear Dr. Hortega, I regret to inform you that Dr. Da Fano died suddenly last Sunday night. He had been at a dinner & dance party in the Savoy Hotel on Sunday evening & was found dead in bed next morning. This is a severe loss to British Neurology and to the good fellowship which existed between British & Italian medicine.

Prof. Barclay Smith has informed me that you intending staying with Da Fano during the Anatomical Congress. Accordingly, will you be so good as to leave yourself in my hands, and I will see that you are looked after during this time.

I think we have several friends in common and I know Bailey of Boston and during my year's stay in U.S.A. in 1926 I also met young Dr. Fontana.

Will you be so good as to inform me of your time of arrival in this country so that I may meet you.

Looking forward to a particularly pleasant Congress,

I am
Yours truly

H. A. Harris
