

TRINITY COLLEGE,
OXFORD.

26th June 1939.

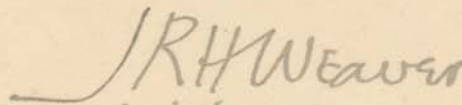

Dear Dr. Hortegea,

I have much pleasure in telling you that you have been elected an Honorary Member of the Senior Common Room of Trinity College. I enclose particulars of the privileges to which Honorary Members are entitled. We are, of course, a small Body; on week-days in Term time about five or six Fellows dine; on Sundays between twelve and twenty. In Vacation, only three or four Fellows dine regularly. We do not usually dress for dinner except on Sundays, and a gown is only necessary in Term time. It is necessary to ring up the Lodge (3116) before two o'clock in order to put your name down for dinner.

We are all very glad to welcome you as an Honorary Member, and when I see you next I will explain any details, if necessary. I am going away tomorrow to Dublin until the end of the week.

With kind regards to yourself and your family,

Yours sincerely,

President.
